

Revealing Christian Heritage

Talks on the rediscovery of Christian archaeology between 1860 and 1930

September 29, 2021, h. 15-17.30 (CET)

online at <https://eu.bbcollab.com/guest/7038e9bcf05448da9a7b92a4fe21e2b4>

Introduction

Christian Heritage and Propaganda – E. Di Benedetto (Bologna)

Reception of catacomb art in European culture and architecture - C. Cecalupo, Universidad Carlos III (Madrid)

Inventing Medieval Caucasus: Between Colonialism and Orientalism - I. Foletti, Masaryk University (Brno)

Byzantine artefacts vs. Classical antiquities in early Greek legislation on heritage protection – C. Mannoni, Università Ca' Foscari (Venezia)

Christian excavations in the Holy Land. The first explorations and the establishment of archaeological school – D. Bianchi, Universität Wien (Wien)

On behalf of Her Majesty: unveiling the Early Christian Heritage of the Aksumite Kingdom (Horn of Africa) in the 19th century – G. Castiglia, M. Ciliberti, Pontificio Istituto di Archeologia Cristiana (Rome)

Christian Archaeology and French Devotion to Martyrs in Nineteenth-Century Tunisia– B. Effros, University of Liverpool (Liverpool)

Medieval church art and nation building in Norway during the nineteenth century – J. E A Kroesen, University Museum of Bergen (Bergen)

Discussion