

CONFERENCE SPONSOR PACKAGES

MCAA events are meeting places for people building tomorrow. We are committed to achieving standards of excellence in science and research by providing conference and event formats that encourage interaction, networking, and high-class scientific knowledge.

BENEFITS FOR OUR SPONSORS AND PARTNERS

Exposure to a global network of 20,000+ high-level researchers and professionals at all career stages

Establish connections with community members and our event partners/sponsors

Great opportunity to recruit highly talented individuals through the MCAA network at our Career Fair

Share your vision and ideas with the MCAA community by contributing to our Newsletter and Irradium Magazine

Get noticed and establish brand recognition through MCAA promotion materials

The MCAA Annual Conference will take place in a hybrid format and online in Lisbon, Portugal, on 26-27 March 2022. Please check out our different virtual and physical packages, as well as the social event packages.
