

Kick-off meeting of the Danish Chapter

30th November 2017

Aquaporin A/S Headquarters

Nymøllevej 78, 2800 Kongens Lyngby

Program

17:30

Presentation of the Danish Chapter, Maria E. Mondejar

17:40

The Aquaporin Success story – the impact of research, from academia to business

Michael Holm Møller

Aquaporin A/S, Business Development Executive

Michael Holm Møller will speak about the importance of research collaborations between industry and academia, leading to product development innovations.

18:10

Innovation and Science as ‘drivers’ for urban development and economic growth

Caroline Arends

Lyngby Vidensby, Administrative director

Lyngby-Taarbæk City of Knowledge and Urban Development is a private association to ensure the city's continued growth and development. Caroline Arends will speak about how a partnership across public, private and university sectors is an effective model for cooperation and innovation.

18:40

Career paths: industry after the MC fellowship

Salud Camilleri-Rumbau

Aquaporin A/S, Biomimetic Membrane developer

Salut Camilleri is one of the board members of the Danish Chapter. She is a former Marie-Curie fellow, and she will explain her own experience on doing research in the industry.

18:50

Your research in 1 minute - 1 slide!

19:10

Mingle session- Snacks and drinks will be served.

Tour around Aquaporin premises

Join us!

<https://www.linkedin.com/groups/12076708>

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/1757041087702169>